

Free Lunch & Conservation Workshop

June 28, 2018

Strategies to Promoting Soil Health, Ag Census & USDA Program Eligibility

Tahlequah, Oklahoma

Lunch Provided – RSVP Appreciated

Location: Meeting will be held at the Cherokee Nation Headquarters, located at 17723 HWY 62, Tahlequah, Oklahoma.
Room: Tsa La Gi Ballroom

United States Department of Agriculture
Natural Resources Conservation Service

Pre-registration: 9:30 AM

Start Time: 10:00 AM

Free Lunch & Workshop

Soil Health Principles

Biological Factors

Managing Carbon

Nitrogen Ratio

Infiltration

Demonstration

Ag Census

Importance of Ag

Census

NRCS Programs

Application Process

FSA – Establishing your

Farm & Tract Number

RSVP by June 25

Lisel Worley

918-708-3752 ext. 3

Lisel.worley@ok.usda.gov

or

Carol.crouch@ok.usda.gov

405-612-9331

Open to the Public

Agenda

9:30 AM – Pre-registration

10:00 AM – Welcome & Introductions

- Dr. Carol Crouch, NRCS
- Bruce Davis, Cherokee Nation

10:15 AM – Soil Health Biological Indicators & Principles

- Demonstration
 - Steve Alspach, NRCS

11:00 AM – Importance of Ag Census

- Troy Marshall, NASS

11:15 AM – NRCS Programs – Application Process

- TBA, NRCS

11:45 AM – Farm Service Agency (FSA)

Eligibility Process & Farm and Tract Number

- TBA, FSA

12:15 PM – Prayer & Lunch

- Cherokee Hills Restaurant Buffet
- Networking Opportunity

Save Travel Home