HACN Accepting College Housing Assistance Program Applications for the Fall 2018 Semester

The Housing Authority of the Cherokee Nation will be accepting College Housing Assistance Program applications for the Fall 2018 semester July 23 – August 3, 2018. The College Housing Assistance Program is a NAHASDA funded program designed to assist low income Native American students to secure safe and affordable housing while seeking a first-time Bachelor's degree and maintaining full-time student status at an accredited institute of higher education. The College Housing Assistance Program will provide up to 125 students with up to $1000 per semester for housing costs. Eligible applicants must be a member of a federally recognized tribe and be a resident of the Cherokee Nation jurisdictional area. Applicants must also meet NAHASDA income guidelines as well as other eligibility requirements according to the College Housing Assistance Program policy. Priority will be given to Cherokee Nation tribal citizens and students who were served on the program the previous semester. For more information, please contact 918-456-5482.
