REQUIRED SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION
REPOSSESSION AFFIDAVIT

The repossessing lender must provide the following documentation in order for the Repossession Application to be approved:

- A. Properly completed Repossession Affidavit.
 1. Tribal Repossession Titles and Oklahoma Tax Commission Motor Vehicle Division (August 19, 2002). If the Repossession Title is in the name of the lending institution only and it is a tribal title OTC will charge back taxes. When a tribal title has been issued in the name of a lending institution and an individual tribal member, OTC will allow the lending institution to assign ownership to themselves, provided they submit verification the individual listed on the tribal title was a member of the title issuing tribe.
- B. Actual or certified copy or chattel mortgage, conditional sales contract or other type security agreement.

Note: Contract must indicate the vehicle, boat, or outboard motor has been pledged as collateral as lists a complete description of the unit along with a vehicle identification number or hull identification number.

- C. Copy #3 and #4 of the Lien Release Form. If more than one (1) lien holder, the following is also required:
 1. A copy of a certified letter from the repossession lender notifying the second lien holder of the intent to repossess.
 - a. Letter must be dated at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the repossession affidavit is processed by the Cherokee Nation motor license agent or the Motor Vehicle Division.
 - b. The post office receipt or the return receipt (green card signed by the second lienholder is required as proof of mailing.
 2. If the second lienholder is making application for a repossession title, signed and dated lien release Copy #3 and Copy #4 from the previous lienholder(s) are required. In the absence of copies 3 and 4, a certified copy of Copy #1 may be submitted.
- D. If a motor vehicle, Insurance Security Verification Form reflecting all required information or a Cherokee Nation Tax Commission Form 31-01 "Affidavit of Non-Use" in Lieu of Liability Insurance".
- E. Manufactured Homes: Must have proof of current calendar year taxes paid on and OTC Form 936 or a 936 marked taxes are not due. A 936 isn't required if the manufactured home has current registration on the Cherokee Nation Tax Commission computer system.
