Little Cherokee Ambassador

Leadership Competition Application
Osiyo!

Thank you for requesting an application for the 2022-2023 Little Cherokee Ambassador program. The following is information that will help you fill out the application and better understand what to expect during the Event.

The Little Cherokee Ambassador event will be Friday, August 26, 2022. Each age division will compete, and new Ambassadors will be announced during the program.

Applications must be received by Monday, August 1, 2022. Hand delivered applications will be accepted on deadline day, from 3:00 am to 6:00 pm, in the lobby of the W.W. Keeler Cherokee Nation Tribal Complex.

All participants must meet the following eligibility criteria:
- Must be between the ages of 4-12 years on August 26, 2022 (Age on the day of competition will determine age division)
- Must be a Cherokee Nation citizen
- Must reside within the Cherokee Nation’s jurisdictional area
- Must be physically able to perform the duty
- Must not have previously served as Little Cherokee Ambassador in the same division
- Must provide a completed Little Cherokee Ambassador application by deadline

Contestants will be judged based on the same criteria. Participants will be judged on the following:
- Personal Introduction (10-12 Year division ONLY): 10-12 year old contestants will introduce themselves. This is not a judged category for 4-6 and 7-9 year old divisions.
- Cultural Presentation: This presentation is of contestant’s choice and judges will be looking for an accurate knowledge of topic, Cherokee cultural relevance and content. A table or chair will be available upon request for a display, if needed. This presentation should not exceed three minutes.
- Cultural Interview: The interview will be conducted by an emcee, and will consist of three questions selected from the information in the applicant packet. Each division will be asked different sets of questions.
- Overall Stage Presentation: Additional points will be given for overall knowledge, confidence and ability.

*Contestants will not be judged on attire. However, if selected, Ambassadors must have traditional attire. The official dress of Little Cherokee Ambassadors is the traditional Cherokee Tear Dress or Ribbon Shirt and Hunting Jacket, pucker toe moccasins and appropriate accessories, i.e., woven belt, beaded, copper, clay bead and/or corn bead jewelry.

Upon verification of eligibility, a confirmation letter, a Cherokee cultural packet, program policies and procedures and details about competition day will be sent, via email. Please provide an email in the application, as all communication from here out will be sent electronically. We look forward to receiving your application.

Applications can be emailed to Little-Cherokee-Ambassadors@cherokee.org or hand delivered to the Cherokee Nation Tribal Complex on August 1, 2022. Inquiries can be submitted to Kristen-Smith@cherokee.org or (918) 207-4974

No late applications will be accepted. It is not recommended to mail applications, but if absolutely necessary, mail to: Cherokee Nation Little Ambassador Program, Attention: Lisa Trice-Turtle, P.O. Box 948, Tahlequah, OK 74465. Please follow up on any mailed applications.
