

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Is there a paper application to fill out for the Cherokee Nation Chief and Deputy Chief Honor Awards (formerly Valedictorian/Salutatorian Scholarship), Cherokee Nation Concurrent Enrollment Scholarship, Cherokee Nation Undergraduate Scholarship, or the Cherokee Nation Graduate Scholarship?

No, Students need to complete the online application located on the Gadugi Portal and upload required documents to the application.

Do I have to perform Volunteer Hours?

Students who receive the Cherokee Nation Concurrent Enrollment, Undergraduate, and Graduate scholarship are required to perform volunteer hours based on the amount of funding received. For example: A student who receives $2,500 is required to volunteer 25 hours, or one hour for each $100 received. If a student decides not to complete the hours before the deadline, funding may be jeopardized.

Where can I perform my community service?

Community Service can be done with any non-profit organization, Cherokee Nation or at a Cherokee Nation sponsored event regardless of location. Must be humanitarian/community-based efforts.

What is the FAFSA Submission Summary?

The FAFSA Submission Summary is the processed information from the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). FAFSA website link:

<https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/afsa>

My grades will not be available until after the deadline, what can I do?

Students whose grades will not be available until after the deadline, may submit a letter from their College or University stating when grades will be posted that can be uploaded with all other required documentation by the scholarship deadline.

I dropped a class this semester; how does that affect my scholarship?

Awards are based off of the previous semester's earned hours and community service:

Undergraduate Scholarship

Hours earned = 0-5hrs = no funding

Hours earned = 6-11 hrs = part-time funding

Hours earned Fall = 12hrs or more = full-time funding

Graduate Scholarship

Hours earned = 0-2hrs = no funding

Hours earned = 3-5hrs = part-time funding

Hours earned = 6hrs or more = full-time funding

Concurrent Enrollment Scholarship

Students must pass and earn all hours for all classes taken, per the required college class schedule for the semester

Is there a paper application for the Cherokee Nation Stole/Honor Cord Program?

No, Students need to complete the online application located on the Gadugi Portal and upload required documents to the application.

Eligibility checklist for Cherokee Nation at-large citizens:

1. Registered Cherokee Nation citizen
2. Eligible for the Federal Pell grant – eligibility determined from the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) application called the FAFSA Submission Summary

GW22 DJF
CHEROKEE NATION®
Education Services

Visit gadugiportal.cherokee.org to apply.

QUESTIONS?

800-256-0671, ext. 5465

collegeresources@cherokee.org